May 5th is the National Day of Prayer

An annual event in which millions of Americans unite to pray for our country and leaders. The National Day of Prayer first began in 1795 when President George Washington issued a proclamation setting aside a day of public thanksgiving. An annual day of prayer was established by Congress in 1952. In 1988, President Reagan designated the National Day of Prayer as the first Thursday in the month of May. This year, marks the 60th Annual National Day of Prayer. The theme is based on the verse from Psalms 91:2 which states: “I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust”.
